ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

First of all I would like to thank Dr.-Ing. Nipon Ketjoy for being my adviser, for his valuable time, comments, criticisms and guidance throughout this research work.

Many thanks also go to Associate Professor Dr. Wattanapong Rakwichian, and Dr. Somchai Maneewan, my co-adviser, for their guidance and enlightenment that had enabled me to explore my ideas for research.

My sincere thanks to Dr. Sukruedee Nathakaranakule, Assistant Professor Dr. Achitpon Sasitharanuwat, and Dr. Somchai Chokmaviroj for their comments that help me to go through the right way in this research work.

I couldn't afford to miss to place my sincere gratitude to my boss, Assistant Professor Lek Saengmeeanupharb, a president of Lampang Rajabhat University, Mr. Wirat Chairak, an academic vice-principal of Lampang Rajabhat University and Associate Professor Bunchat Netisak, a dean of a Faculty of Industrial Technology, Lampang Rajabhat University for the great support given time.

I would like to place my office thanks to the Energy Policy and Planning Office (EPPO), Ministry of Energy, for supporting financially in this research work and all the SERT staffs.

Wholehearted thankful appreciations are given to my parents Mr. Somchai and Mrs. Chamroen Yongprayun for their patience, understanding, support and encourage of my fighting spirit when I sometimes thought of giving up.

Finally, I would like to thank the other, who inspired me but are not named in this acknowledgement.
