ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to thank the many individuals who assisted me in the completion of my master studies. In particular, my greatest appreciation is owed to my major advisor, Dr. Mary Sarawit, who has kindly guided and provided invaluable advice in the writing of this thesis.

Next, I would like to express gratitude to Assoc. Prof. Dr. Kriengsukdi Syananondh for his guidance and continuing encouragement.

Others whose assistance deserves my grateful thanks are Asst. Prof. Tieamchan Phanichphalinchai and Mr. Phanomsit Sornprachak who have kindly advised me about the statistics.

My deep gratitude goes to Mrs. Kridsanee Suwannaprasert and Mrs. Soithip Yoawasut for their morale support and critical correction of the test used for this study.

Additionally, I would like to thank Mr. Sa-ard Phromnoi, the director of the Office of Phitsanulok Provincial Primary Education for speedily processing my application and granting the necessary permission. I wish to thank too, the supervisor, Mr. Anan Masawadi, and the English teachers under the jurisdiction of the Office of Phitsanulok Provincial Primary Education for their help and participation in this study.

Moreover, grateful acknowledgement is due to Mrs. Anchalii Agadmeck for her advice and assistance in collecting data at the seminar.

I am grateful to the Graduate School of Naresuan University for the scholarship granted me.

And lastly, I offer a word of personal deep gratitude to all in my family for their support, care, and love.
